

chiropractic evidence 2012

Venue: Royal College of Obstetricians & Gynaecologists
27 Sussex Place, Regent's Park, London NW1 4RG
Date: Wednesday 1st February 2012

Programme

12.00	Registration, lunch and poster-viewing
13.00	Welcome from the Chair of Chiropractic Evidence 2012 and Director of Research. Gay Swait
13.05	Welcome from the College President and introduction of the 2012 President's Lecturer. Tim Jay
13.10	2012 President's Lecture: Quality and outcomes in primary care Professor Helen Lester, Professor of Primary Care, The University of Birmingham
13.55	The UK back pain subpopulation study: predictors of outcome in patients receiving chiropractic treatment. Laura Davies , Dave Newell, Jenni Bolton & Charlotte Leboeuf-Yde
14.10	Prognostic factors for short-term improvement in acute and persistent musculoskeletal pain consulters in primary care. Hugh Hurst & Jenni Bolton
14.25	Refreshments and poster-viewing
14.55	Quality of care from a researcher's perspective. Jenni Bolton
15.15	Quality from a practitioner's perspective. Jonathan Field
15.35	Quality from a patient's perspective. Robert Johnstone, Chair – Access Matters
15.55	Predictive value of subgroups defined by the STarT Back Tool in a chiropractic population. Dave Newell & Jonathan Field
16.10	Bournemouth Questionnaire and the Measure Yourself Medical Outcome Profile in low back pain patients: A comparative study. Alison Bell , Gay Swait, Adrian Hunnisett & Christina Cunliffe
16.25	A collation of MYMOP data from 25 UK chiropractic clinics. Rob Finch & Tim Jay
16.30	Special Guest Lecture: The importance of clinical research. Peter Tuchin, Senior Lecturer – Macquarie University, and President – Chiropractic & Osteopathic College of Australasia
16.50	Update on a systematic review of the clinical and cost-effectiveness of manual treatment and manipulative therapy – Gay Swait & Christina Cunliffe
17.00	Closing remarks – Gay Swait
17.10	College of Chiropractors 2012 AGM (College members only)	Poster-viewing & drinks (all other delegates and guests)
17.30	Poster-viewing and Drinks Reception (all delegates)
18.30	Close
18.30- 21.30	Awards Dinner by separate invitation / advance application

